Customer Reviews

I have read a lot of Debbie Macomber's books. I have loved them all, including this one. Well written, fun story and a pleasure to read it. Somehow I realized that this was one of her earlier books. The story flows a little less than her later books. Still a great read!

A very enjoyable summer beach feel good book. The story was quite predictable and did not have any surprises. A pleasant read but could have included more characters to add more interest to the story.

I love Debbie's books. This one hit pretty close to home. I ante mother that has a hard time letting go.

A heartwarming gentle read. I have been enjoying Debbie's books for years. This short story reminded me of the ebb and flow of life. The holding on and the letting go.

A very quick read. I enjoyed it tremendously. Watching two opposites attract and fight each other through a difficult situation provided a very entertaining read.

I was searching for a Debbie Macomber book that I haven't read and found this one. It is a very enjoyable, quick read.

This was my first Debbie Macomber book and what a pleasure it was. I couldn't put the book down. Wonderful, sweet read. I loved that the author described life situations with class. Thank you.

Nice shot romance story. Well narrative about mother and parenting. The importance of knowing when to let go, given your children time to grow and becoming their own person.
