Customer Reviews

If you're looking for an angsty, erotic serial, this is not it. While this serial is certainly erotic, it's not angsty. Rather, it is more of a feel good romance about two people falling in love. Simon is a billionaire who is uber smart, sexy, and kind of a social recluse. He doesn't do relationships and romance. Women use him for his money and in return he uses them for their bodies. That's what he lives by and how he's always been...until Kara. He's been keeping an eye on Kara for a year without her knowledge. From the first moment Simon laid eyes on her, working at this mom's restaurant, he feels a pull and protectiveness towards her and has been looking over her ever since. Kara is a nursing student down on her luck, working as a waitress to get her through school and life. Her roommate had just cut and run without paying rent and so Kara has just been evicted. On top of that, her roommate took just about everything of Kara's. Left stranded with no home, no belongings, and no money, Simon takes her into his home and lavishes and spoils her with money, clothes, and everything that Kara could ever dreamed of. Their undeniable chemistry soon drives them together for one night of passion, but one night is not nearly enough. Simon is utterly fascinated and obsessed with Kara. Kara's feelings are also mutual. Their close proximity and time spent together eventually has Kara falling for Simon. However, Simon's shield is hard to crack. He possesses a secret that doesn't let him trust easily, especially women due to a bad experience in the past (and I mean bad). But, Kara is a determined woman and her determination and love eventually breaks down Simon's tough shield piece by piece. This serial was simply amazing and finger-lickin' good!!
